

National Baseball Hall of Fame

Induction Ceremony

Cooperstown, NY

Sunday, July 26, 2026

Inductees will be announced Jan. 20, 2026

The National Baseball Museum opened its doors for the first time, in honor of the 100th anniversary of the mythical “first game” that allegedly was played in Cooperstown on June 12, 1839. The first four classes of Hall of Fame electees were honored on that day in 1939.

Located on Main Street in the heart of picturesque Cooperstown, New York, the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum is one of the country’s most popular destinations and is surely the best-known sports shrine in the world. It is every fan’s “Field of Dreams” with its stories, legends and magic to be passed on from generation to generation.

Will your favorite ball player be elected? Come and see.
